The AHLIMBSMUEHLE (N 54/U 91) improvised airfield was unoccupied and a small section of the landing field was under cultivation. A repaired brick building and a shed, both obviously meant for the newly established forester's house, were located on the edge of the field. Two large wooden reels with cables were also lying there. Some open spots indicated the laid cable lines.

Comment:

Report confirms that the AHLIMBSMUEHLE airfield is not occupied by an air unit. PO-2s occasionally landed at the field during maneuvers.
